

Corporate Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

Section 1.0: Anti-Bribery and Gift Acceptance Limits

Employees must never offer, solicit, or accept any bribe, kickback, or improper advantage. Nominal business gifts, promotional items, or event tickets valued under $50 may be accepted. Any gift valued above $25 must be formally logged in the compliance registry within 5 business days.

Section 2.0: Outside Business Activities and Conflicts

Employees must disclose any external commercial engagements, advisory roles, or board memberships to Legal before commencement. Outside employment that competes directly with the company's product line is strictly prohibited.

Section 3.0: Whistleblower Protections and Anonymous Hotline

The company maintains a 24/7 confidential, third-party managed whistleblower hotline. Reports may be filed anonymously via web form or toll-free telephone. Retaliation of any kind against an employee who reports suspected misconduct in good faith is grounds for immediate termination.

Section 4.0: Disciplinary Actions and Enforcement

Violations of this Code will result in disciplinary action up to and including formal reprimand, suspension, termination of employment, and referral to law enforcement authorities where civil or criminal laws have been breached.
