

Corporate Travel and Business Expense Policy

Section 1.0: Commercial Air Travel Booking Guidelines

Employees must book airfare via the corporate travel portal at least 14 days in advance. Economy class is required for all domestic and short-haul flights under 6 hours in total duration. Premium Economy or Business Class is permitted solely for continuous international flights exceeding 6 hours.

Section 2.0: Daily Meals and Incidentals Per Diem

The company reimburses business meals up to a maximum per diem of $75 per day for domestic travel and $100 per day for international travel. Itemized item-level receipts showing date, merchant, and purchased items are required for all individual expenses exceeding $25.

Section 3.0: Expense Claim Submission Window

All expense reports with attached digital receipts must be submitted via the finance portal within 30 calendar days following the completion of travel. Expenses submitted beyond 60 calendar days will be automatically rejected and ineligible for corporate reimbursement.

Section 4.0: Non-Reimbursable Personal Expenses

Personal entertainment, hotel pay-per-view movies, flight cancellation penalties incurred for non-business reasons, traffic fines, and alcoholic beverages not part of a pre-approved client dinner are strictly non-reimbursable.
